

Understand Your Country

Understand Your World

Name _____

Date _____

My Vocabulary

Word	Definition	Picture
Legislative Branch
Judicial Branch
Executive Branch
Prime Minister
Geographical Resources

The roles of the government affect the ways people live because

The geography of a country (the water, land, and natural resources) affects the lifestyle of the people who live there because

The economic structure (the way their money system works) of a country influences the way people live because

How are the purposes of the government and the roles of the citizens different for different countries?

The purpose of the US government is _____

What would a country look like without taxes?

I think a country without taxes would look _____ because I know that taxes are important to countries to help _____

What impact does the geography (water resources, land resources) of a country have on its economy?

The geography of a country can affect the way people make money because _____

After Viewing the presentation and learning about the roles of the government, purposes of taxes, and effect of the geography, what questions do you have for Mercy? Post your questions on the blog.